BEAUTIFUL SENTIMENT.

The beautiful extract below is from the pen of Hon. Geo. S. Hillard:

I contess that increasing years bring with them an increasing respect for men who do not succeed in life, as those words are commonly used. Heaven is said to be a place for those who have not succeeded upon earth; and it is surely true celestial graces do not best thrive and bloom in the hot blaze of worldly prosperity. Ill success sometimes arises from a superbundance of qualities in themselves good-from a concience too sensitive, a taste too fastidious, a martyrs that miss the palm but not the stake; heroes without the laurel, and conquerors without the laurel, and conquerors without the triumph.
